

One-Skillet Ground Beef Enchilada Casserole

Nothing is better than a skillet piled high with saucy meat, flour tortillas, and gooey cheese. This one-skillet ground beef enchilada casserole is perfect for family dinner!

Prep Time	Cook Time	Total Time
20 mins	25 mins	45 mins

Course: 100 + BEST Easy Beef Recipes for Dinner Cuisine: Mexican

★★★★☆
4 from 28 votes

Keyword: dinner, dinner recipe, easy dinner, easy weeknight dinner, enchilada, ground beef, mexican, one pan, tortillas Servings: 6
Author: Sweet Basil

Equipment

- Cast Iron Skillet
- Wusthof Knives
- Meat Chopper
- Measuring Cups and Spoons
- Glass Measuring Cup - 2 Cup
- Cutting Board
- Can Opener

Ingredients

- 1 Pound Ground Beef
- 1 Package Taco Seasoning or 3 Tablespoons
- 1 Cup Yellow Onion chopped
- 1 Cup Cremini Mushrooms diced
- 2 Cups Red Enchilada Sauce
- 1 Can Pinto Beans drained but not rinsed, 15 ounce can
- 3 Cups Cheddar Cheese
- 1/2 Cup Queso Fresco crumbled
- 5-6 Flour Tortillas
- Cilantro minced for garnish
- Mexican Crema (Sour Cream or Plain Greek Yogurt may also be used)

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F.
2. Heat an 8-10 inch cast iron skillet over medium heat. See note below.
3. Add the ground beef and taco seasoning and stir throughout cooking to combine, about 8-10 minutes.
1 Pound Ground Beef, 1 Package Taco Seasoning
4. Next, add in the onions and mushrooms, and continue stirring every 2-3 minutes for 5-6 more minutes.
1 Cup Yellow Onion, 1 Cup Cremini Mushrooms
5. Once everything is soft, add in the enchilada sauce and beans. Bring the mixture to a simmer and continue to stir every few minutes.
2 Cups Red Enchilada Sauce, 1 Can Pinto Beans
6. Add in 2/3 of each cheese and stir to combine.
3 Cups Cheddar Cheese, 1/2 Cup Queso Fresco
7. Pour the mixture into a bowl and remove the skillet from the burner.
8. Add a large spoonful of the mixture to the bottom of the skillet, and spread it around so the tortillas don't burn.
9. Place one tortilla into the skillet and cover with a spoonful of the sauce mixture.
5-6 Flour Tortillas
10. Add another tortilla and repeat the layering until you've used all of the ingredients, top with all of the remaining cheddar and queso fresco.
3 Cups Cheddar Cheese, 1/2 Cup Queso Fresco
11. Bake the casserole for 25-30 minutes and remove from the oven.
12. Sprinkle with cilantro and add a dollop of sour cream if desired.
Cilantro, Mexican Crema

Notes

- Depending on the size of your tortillas you may need to change the size of your skillet.

Enchilada casserole will keep for 2-3 days, covered, in the refrigerator.

© %YEAR% Oh Sweet Basil